The Special Order was taken up and the following paper adopted:

Whereas it is all-important that more permanent arrangements be made for the publication of our Conference organ, The Southern Christian Advocate; and

Whereas it is equally important to the fullest success of our paper that our preachers and leading laymen should be more definitely and positively interested in the success of the paper; and

Whereas the present contract for the publication of The Advocate will soon expire, making it necessary that some steps should be taken looking to its future publication; therefore, be it

Resolved, That W. D. Kirkland, J. O. Willson, W. J. Montgomery, S. B. Jones and J. C. Kilgo are hereby appointed a commission to organize, if practicable, a joint stock company for the publication of The Southern Christian Advocate, to be composed of our preachers and laymen, with the understanding that if the efforts of the commission meet with success the Conference will submit the publication of the paper to said joint stock company for a term of ten years or more on terms similar to those now in force.

The report of the Special Committee on Evangelists was read and adopted, as follows:

Whereas it has come to the knowledge of this Conference that, without the invitation, and in some instances against the protest, of the appointed pastor, certain persons claiming to be Methodist preachers and calling themselves traveling evangelists have invaded portions of our territory, attacked our ministry and Discipline, led astray the unweary, and caused dissensions among our people; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That it is the sense of the South Carolina Conference that our Presiding Elders and pastors should discourage as much as possible the invitation or employment of traveling evangelists within their bounds; and that if, in the face of this discouragement, such men, unmindful of the proprieties, not to say the decencies, involved, should force themselves upon any community, our pastors should refuse them access to our churches and pulpits, and publicly announce that Methodism is not responsible for the doctrines they teach or the methods they employ.

2. That any member of the M. E. Church, South, within the bounds of the South Carolina Conference, who without license or authority from the Quarterly Conference shall undertake to preach or publicly expound the Word of God in our midst is in the very act guilty of "inveighing against our Discipline," and if he persists should be arrested and dealt with for violation, not only of order, but of law.

3. That our people are earnestly requested, as they value the unity of our beloved Methodism, to co-operate with their pastors in suppressing this growing evil.

S. B. JONES,
W. D. KIRKLAND,
JOHN O. WILLSON,
Committee.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That we endorse the course of the Editor of The Southern Christian Advocate in defending our Conference against the wholesale attack made upon us by the President of Rutherford College.

REPORTS.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The development of the largest, as well as the purest, type of manhood is the aim of Christianity, and the Church is committed to every movement looking to this work. Hence, the Christian school has been, and must always be, a necessary factor in the salvation of the race. For the Church to regard education lightly, or place it in the hands of the State, is to surrender not only an arm of its power, but to ignore the true genius of Christianity. We fear that the Church is not thoroughly aroused upon the subject and that the great majority of our people have no conscience upon the matter of education. It must, through its ministry, beget, by faithful preaching, a sentiment that opposes ignorance and declares for a high Christian culture. We have much to congratulate ourselves upon, but it is in our power to work an educational revolution in the South, and only a faithful effort can meet our responsibility.

Wofford College

Closed last June the most prosperous year in its history. The present year shows a small decrease in its numbers, which President Carlisle accounts for by the unusual size of the Senior Class last year. The Board of Trustees did not present, as required by the charter of College, their financial report, hence we are unable to report on the financial condition of the College. Wofford is worthy of patronage, and we ask this Conference to give it undivided support. We nominate the following as Trustees of Wofford: Bishop W. W. Duncan, W. A. Rogers, W. D. Kirkland, S. A. Weber, J. W. Dickson, J. E. Carlisle, J. K. Jennings, George Cofield, Geo. E. Prince, W. M. Connor, H. Baer, T. B. Stackhouse, C. G. Dantzler.

Columbia Female College.

The report of the Board of Trustees of Columbia Female College shows that the College closed last June a very prosperous year. During the Summer the entire building was put in good repair. New furniture, in the way of carpeting, etc., was put in the entire building. All modern conveniences were added, so that now it is equal in comfort and convenience to any college building in the State. All the improvements have been made without debt. The number of pupils the present session is not so large as last year, but this is explained by the financial depression of our people. We regard the College worthy our support and patronage. We ask the Bishop to appoint Rev. Marion Dargan, Agent of the College, to canvass the State to raise $10,000 to enlarge the building and increase the patronage. We nominate the following Board of Trustees: A. J. Stokes, T. G. Herbert, J. B. Traywick, A. J. Cauthen, J. O. Willson, J. A. Clifton, W. C. Power, J. W. Daniel, Dr. W. J. Murray, Benj. Greig, F. H. Hyatt, R. H. Jennings, J. Fuller Lyon.

During the present year the citizens of Bamberg offered us $5,000 worth of property and $10,000 in money to establish in their town a Fitting School to be under the control of this Conference. This proposition was accepted, and the Carlisle Fitting School was opened October 3d, with Prof. H. G. Sheridan, Head-Master. The main building has not been completed, but the school is conducted temporarily in the boarding department. It is expected that all the buildings will be completed by the 1st of January, 1893. The Head-Master reports a matriculation of twenty-one boys and twenty-three girls in the Preparatory Department and twenty-six in the Primary Department. This we regard a very fine showing. Prof. Sheridan is a true Christian and a leading educator, and he is assisted by a strong corps of teachers. Through this school the Southern section of our State is offered educational advantages entirely worthy of us. We commend it to the support of this Conference.

The Cokesbury Conference School

Reports a good attendance, and we commend this school to our people. We recommend that the same Trustees be continued for it.

We ask the Bishop to make the following appointments: Dr. S. B. Jones, President of Columbia Female Female College; Dr. S. Lander, President of Williamston Female College; Rev. G. W. Walker, President of Paine Institute; Rev. Jno. C. Kilgo, Financial Agent of Wofford College.

We also appoint J. M. Steadman in the place of J. B. Campbell, on the Committee of Examination for the second year, and W. P. Meadors, Chairman of the Committee.

Resolved, That $4,000 be assessed for the current expenses of Wofford College.

S. B. JONES, President.
J. C. KILGO, Secretary.

REPORT ON BIBLE CAUSE.

The open Bible is the distinctive symbol of Protestantism.

Never has the inspired Word, the ground and bulwark of our faith, been more fiercely assailed by unbelief than at the present, and never have the exactions of business and the alluring production of the secular press been more potent in diverting men's thoughts and attention from it.

Under these circumstances we rejoice in the work of the American Bible Society, both in our own and foreign lands. Its existence and support is a declaration to the world of the estimation in which the Word of God is held by the Christian Church, while the contribution it receives enables it to publish the Scriptures in such variety of style as to meet every demand, and at such prices as to put within the reach of even the poorest this inestimable treasure.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

1st. That, as pastors, we will urge our people to be diligent and earnest in the reading and study of the Holy Scriptures, and will insist that they be not displaced by any substitute in our Sunday schools.

2d. That when necessary we will direct the attention of those needing Bibles to the very favorable terms on which they are offered by the American Bible Society.

3d. That on the fourth Sunday of March, or some other day near that time, we will take up collections in all our congregations in aid of the Society and will forward the same to Rev. T. H. Law, Spartanburg, S. C.

Signed in behalf of the Committee,

A. J. STAFFORD, Chairman.

MINUTES.

The Committee on Minutes beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the publishers of the Minutes last year and find them correct.

The Treasurer's report is as follows:

Received from Legal Conference	$ 35 00
Received from the charges	457 86
Received from publishers last year	1 43
Total	$494 29

We nominate Revs. H. F. Chreitzberg and E. O. Watson to edit and publish the Minutes of this Conference, and recommend the publication of four thousand copies. The Committee further recommends that an assessment of six hundred dollars be made for the publication of the Minutes of next Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. MEADORS, Chairman.
A. J. A. PERRITT, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

A year ago the South Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, memorialized the Legislature, earnestly petitioning that honorable body to enact a bill then before it, to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. The measure passed the House but failed in the Senate. The people of the State are deeply interested in this vitally important question, and the past Summer, when it was submitted to the white voters of the State, there was a large majority for prohibition. We consider this a demand by the people for the immdiate enactment of a law that will rid our State of this gigantic evil—rum—and a demand that our General Assembly cannot and should not ignore.

Therefore be it resolved, That we do earnestly and prayerfully petition the General Assembly to enact a law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of all kinds of intoxicating liquors, and thus aid in advancing the best interests of humanity and the cause of Christ.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, properly authenticated by the Bishop and Secretary, be transmitted to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Respectfully submitted,

S. A. NETTLES, Chairman.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Church is committed, as an incident of its high and holy mission, to the work of the circulation of a wholesome Christian literature. Next to the Gospel preached under the anointment of the Divine presence and power, is the same Gospel read and studied in books and periodicals sent out under the auspices of the Church and with its approval.

Your Committee regret that they have received no official communication from the Publishing House at Nashville, Tenn. They are gratified, however, to infer the continued prosperity and the growing usefulness of the House. It is doing a most important work, not only in the issuance of a good grade of literature, consisting of works by our own authors as well as reprints of books of current and standard value, but also in the publication of the Quarterly Review, the Christian Advocate and our different Sunday school periodicals and libraries.

It is held to be the duty as well as the interest of our people to patronize our own House. We thus not only procure our own literature, so essential to our denominational integrity, but procure also books published elsewhere at publishers' rates, so that both loyalty to our own Church and business principles co-act as motives to patronize our own institution.

The Publishing House is steadily adding to its large catalogue, and our preachers now can readily supply themselves with books with our own orthodox imprimatur. The Agents offer an attractive list of books for the Sunday school library, and there is no reason for sending to New York or Chicago for our Sunday school literature.

The Quarterly Review is an excellent publication, and is edited with great ability by the learned and distinguished Dr. W. P. Harrison. It shows improvement as quarter after quarter it goes to its subscribers. Your Committee would respectfully suggest that the important department of book notices be increased. This department would be of much greater interest and value if current literature had larger attention given to it and more space.

The Christian Advocate, under the editorial conduct of Drs. Hoss and Bounds, ranks among the foremost Christian journals of the country. It is eminently worthy a place in the homes of our people. In its selections, its editorial articles and items, its summary of denominational news, its broad view and review of current intelligence, both secular and religious, and in its pronounced yet conservative position on all issues of moral progress and reforms, it commends itself without qualification to the great Church of which it is an official organ.

The Southern Christian Advocate is our Conference organ, and appeals first of all to the support and patronage of the Methodists of South Carolina. It is eminently entitled to a universal circulation throughout the South Carolina Conference. In its selected matter, in the arrangement and display of its different departments, in its well nigh perfect mechanical make-up, in its contributed articles, and in the ability and versatility of the work of its accomplished editor, it merits and should receive the hearty patronage of our Conference.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, 1st, That we recommend to our preachers that they, as a part of their work and mission, seek to circulate our books and periodicals among our people.

Resolved, 2d, That we recommend the circulation of The Southern Christian Advocate in our charges, and that our ideals be nothing less than an Advocate in every Methodist family.

S. A. WEBER, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD, No. 1.

The Church has no more important work than the training of her children. It ranks with any other of the numerous and varied branches of development into which the Holy Spirit has directed the zeal and energy of the Church. The Sunday school is the training school from which are drawn the soldiers alike to hold the citadel at home and to advance the banner of the Cross in heathen lands. The training of our children in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord" means the existence in the future of an army of well trained and thoroughly equipped men and women to carry on the Master's work. The aim of the Church should be to secure the greatest efficiency in this important work.

Your Board would call attention to one or two important points.

First, as regards workers. Two things are requisite—deep experience of the saving power of "the truth as it is in Jesus" and aptness to teach. Much harm—harm that may never be remedied—is done to the "lambs of the flock" by the employment of unconverted and worldly-minded teachers. No one can help another closer to God than he himself, and it is foolish to expect piety to result from the teachings of a frivolous or worldly-minded person. The Church should never employ in important positions persons who are not truly pious.

But not every pious person is "apt to teach." Ignorance may be as disastrous to a cause as treason. An inefficient teacher may hurt the Church as much as a worldly one. In these days of lesson helps and training agencies, when the best are within reach of almost every one, there is no reason why our teachers should not be increasingly efficient. The true teacher is sure to desire the best advantages and will endeavor to use the best methods. The day of lesson hearing, we trust, is near its close, and the successful teacher must be prepared to teach, to instruct and develop.

We regret to note that catechetical instruction and independent Bible study have fallen into disuse among us. The International Lessons are good—wisely selected and ably edited—but they do not supply the place of the simple catechism for the little children, nor of the Bible for the older ones. If our children are to be Methodists, they must be early trained in our doctrines and polity. If they are to be good soldiers of Christ, they must read and study the Word itself. A Bible should be placed in the hands of every child in our Sunday schools. History shows that every Bible-studying age is an age of spiritual growth and prepares the way for intellectual and material development. Hence, if we would rightly fill our place and help on the kingdom of God, we must read and study the Bible in our homes and teach it in our Sunday schools.

The matter of good libraries in our Sunday schools is most important. Our Publishing House is doing a great work by placing good collections of pure books within reach even of our poorest schools. We would suggest that as far as possible the aid given by this Board be applied to the securing of good books for the children.

"Children's Day" was observed by forty-seven charges, the collections amounting to $261.75.

Aid has been rendered as follows:

Sumter Mission School	$50 00

Your Board offers the following resolutions:

Resolved, That pastors and superintendents be urged to secure as far as possible the employment only of pious men and women as teachers in our Sunday schools, and that teachers be urged and helped to the greatest efficiency.

Resolved, That as far as possible we supply our infant classes with our catechisms, and that in every Sunday school Bible classes be organized for older persons.

Resolved, That the goal of our effort be a good library in every Sunday school this year.

E. T. HODGES, President.

M. L. CARLISLE, Secretary.

Report No. 2.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The object in organizing the Epworth League was to encourage and train our young people in the careful and systematic study of the Word of God, the doctrine, polity and history of the Church, and good books generally. And after head and heart have been filled with living truth, the opportunity is afforded through the various meetings and efforts of the League to put into exercise all that has been received. There are great possibilities and also great dangers confronting the League. Let us wisely improve the one and shun the other.

We are sorry to note that many Leagues which were doing well last year are now dead or dying. Where does the blame rest? Some high in authority in League circles, answer, "we, the preachers." Is this true of us, brethren of the S. C. Conference? Shall it be true? We pray not!

Resolved, That we put forth every effort to make the Epworth League a great success, and to this end that we organize Leagues where they have not been organized, and revive those that are dead.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION DARGAN, for Committee.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Committee on District Conference Journals would ask to submit the following report:

The Cokesbury District Journal is well arranged and has been well kept, and we have no adverse criticism to make concerning it.

The Journal of the Sumter District is a model for neatness, but does not mention the name of the denomination. One grammatical error was noticed, and also one sentence which is ambiguous. The Journal appears to be accurate in other respects.

The Orangeburg District Conference Record uses the abbreviation "Cola." for Columbia, in referring to the Columbia District and the Columbia Female College. Abbreviations of this kind should not be used in the Church records. The book is a model in penmanship and accuracy.

The Greenville District Journal is an excellent record, as far as it goes. It fails to contain a single written report from any of the committees, but only makes mention of same in a general way in the proceedings of the Conference. There is also an omission of a word in a resolution of the Conference as to certain of our Missionaries, the absence of which word renders the resolution ambiguous. The District has published its Minutes in pamphlet form, which is highly commended.

The Journal of the Charleston District contains no report from the St. George Circuit. Barring this omission, the record is entitled to nothing but favorable consideration.

The Record of the Marion District Conference is deserving of the very highest commendation. It is a model journal in every respect. It is beautifully written, is excellently arranged and has been faithfully kept.

The Florence District Conference Journal has several erasures and interlineations which disfigure the record. The days and dates of the session, after the first day, are not stated. In other respects the journal is fairly kept.

The Journal of the Chester District Conference contains no roll of the Conference, is not signed by the President or Secretary, has some improper spelling, and only one of the written reports made to the Conference has been recorded.

The Columbia District Conference Journal is faultless, bearing every evidence of careful, painstaking work. It is a model of neatness and accuracy, and its arrangement is excellent.

The Journal of the Spartanbug District has been very neatly kept.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW C. DIBBLE, Chairman.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

No. 1.

Since the organization of the Conference Board of Church Extension, the first regular meeting of which was held in Sumter, S. C., December 14, 1883, nineteen thousand and thirteen dollars and sixteen cents have been raised. The amount has been disbursed as follows:

Paid to the General Board	$9,501 19
Paid to 114 Churches in the Conference	9,431 62
Paid expense of Board up to present year	80 35
Total	$19,013 16

The one hundred and fourteen (114) churches aided by the Board are distributed in the Districts as follows:

Florence District	17
Charleston District	16
Cokesbury District	16
Greenville District	15
Marion District	11
Sumter District	11
Columbia District	11
Chester District	9
Spartanburg District	6
Orangeburg District	2
Total	114

We have nothing to boast of in this showing, but we give thanks to God for what He has enabled us to accomplish, and pray that He may move us to still greater achievements.

In quite a number of the Conferences "Loan Funds" have been raised, which have been used to great advantage. In order that we may keep abreast of the other Conferences in their important work, and do more toward the furtherance of the cause of Church extension, we offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the General Board of Church Extension be, and it is hereby, requested to inaugurate during the ensuing Conference year, through the Corresponding Secretary, a movement looking to the securing of a named Loan Fund, to be administered by it under the law of the Church, and to be known as the W. M. Wightman Loan Fund.

Resolved, 2d, That Bishop W. W. Duncan be requested to render such aid in this work as he may find it convenient to do.

J. C. CHANDLER, President.
JAMES F. PEARCE, Secretary.
GEO. W. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Report No. 2.

The Board of Church Extension regret to report a serious falling off in collections for the past year, caused mainly by the depressed condition of the country. Charleston District	$394 29
Columbia District	287 63
Marion District	277 15
Cokesbury District	271 06
Florence District	248 74

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The annual meeting of the Board of Missions was held in Trinity Lecture Room, Charleston, S. C., Tuesday morning, November 22, 1892, Rev. J. B. Traywick, President, in the chair.

The reports from the various missions and feeble charges assisted by the Board were, on the whole, encouraging, though it has been a year of financial stringency.

Cumberland, in the city of Charleston, is in a healthy condition, and promises the accomplishment of much good in the future as in the past.

The Columbia City Mission has had a year of great prosperity. The charge is rejoicing in a new Greene street church. That in asking the help of the Board the people are helping themselves, is shown in the fact that this church has paid over $6 per capita to the various collections.

In Brookland Mission, the pastor has labored faithfully, but the results have not met our expectations. It was thought best to consolidate this and the "City Mission" under the name of Greene Street and Brookland.

Parksville Mission has had a hard year, and yet a good work has been done, and the people are earnest and hopeful of the future.

Pee Dee Mission has accomplished but little the present year, judged by a financial standard. But still it is true, "The poor have the Gospel preached unto them," and perhaps a fairer record is on high.

Upper Edisto.—This old mission field is still held by us for Christ. There has been some advancement the present year.

The Bethel and Spartan Mills Mission in the city of Spartanburg is on a sound basis, and is a promising field.

West End (Greenville) was established a year ago. The high expectations of that time have been more than realized. We hope at an early day to have a fine self-supporting charge.

Blue Ridge, also projected a year ago, has done remarkably well.

All of these, except Brookland, were continued as missions. The following new missions were established: Reevesville and St. Paul's, and Plantersville.

The record of another year has been made up. We pray God's added blessing to all our poor human efforts. We are trustful, hopeful. It is enough that we are working for Him and with Him in this grandest of all undertakings—the regeneration of a lost world, the inauguration of the new heavens and the new earth! The Board of Missions thinks the time has come for a "forward movement" along all the lines of our great work. We urge our pastors to preach often, and by special appointment, on the subject of missions, and to hold concerts of prayer for missions. We think our District Conferences should have at each session a "Missionary Day," and carry out a programme calculated to instruct and inspire. We feel, with the whole Church, the burden of the missionary debt, and endorse the plan touching it proposed by Dr. Lambuth, and the appointment of a week of prayer and self-denial, January 2–8, when we should preach and pray and liberally give towards its liquidation. Believing more and more in the power of the printed page, we commend to our people the Missionary Reporter and the little Sowers and Reapers. Finally, dear brethren, let us press the collections, and, if possible, have at least half of the assessments in by the first of June. By all these means, let us do the work. It will not avail to resolve —let us act!

REPORT OF ADVOCATE PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE:

The Publishing Committee of the Southern Christian Advocate reports that our paper has sustained its high reputation during another year. Our editor, Rev. W. D. Kirkland, D. D., has continued to furnish forceful editorials, to select admirable matter, and to secure interesting contribntions. His work has been fully up to the fine record of past years. Our publisher, Mr. C. A. Calvo, Jr., has been prompt and steady in the work of his department. He merits our approval.

The Committee has audited the royalty account, and find same correct and properly vouched.

The Committee recommends renewed effort to increase the circulation of the Advocate. It is necessary for the advancement of our Church that our organ be a visitor to every Methodist home in the State.

The publisher's statement showed a large deficiency in the settlement with agents last year. The Committee insists that these deficiencies be paid this year, and that no such shortcoming be permitted in the future.

MEMOIRS.

REV. WILLIAM HUTTO

Was born in Orangeburg County, S. C., January 24, 1828, and died in Williamston, S. C., January 19, 1892.

He belonged to that sturdy and thrifty old Teutonic stock that settled in the lower part of our State in the early days of her Colonial history, and inherited from his ancestors those substantial and useful traits of mind and heart which were so prominent in their characters and lives.

Reared amid religious privileges and holy influences in an oldtime Methodist home, we are not surprised to know that in early life he consecrated all his ransomed powers to the services of his Redeemer and Saviour.

His conversion was clear and satisfactory, and his piety deep and uniform.

Being impressed that it was his duty to "preach the unsearchable riches of Christ," he "conferred not with flesh and blood," but entered promptly and cheerfully upon his life-work as an itinerant Methodist preacher.

He was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference in 1849, of which body he was an honored and useful member until his death. Though not blessed with the educational advantages now enjoyed by our young men, he, by close and judicious application to such studies as the Church recommended and required, stored his mind with useful and varied knowledge, and under the Divine blessing prepared himself for efficiency and success in his ministerial work.

During a ministry of forty-two years he maintained an unblemished and irreproachable character, and exerted a positive and yet conservative religious influence wherever he lived and labored. Entering the South Carolina Conference at a time when large circuits and small salaries were the order of the day, he patiently and even cheerfully endured all the privations and difficulties incident to an itinerant's life. The love of Christ constrained him; therefore the work of the ministry was a pleasure to him, and he was always ready to spend or be spent, if thereby he might lead some wandering soul to Christ.

Brother Hutto was a man in whom everybody had the most implicit confidence. The ground of this confidence was his deep spirituality and consistent piety. He was an humble, earnest and devoted Christian; and while he made no high pretensions in regard to his own superior sanctity and blamelessness, yet his Christian character was so well rounded and symmetrical that he readily secured the esteem and love of all classes of society. He was peculiarly the friend of the poor and afflicted, and took great pleasure in ministering to them, both in temporal and spiritual things. In this he followed the blessed Saviour, "who went about doing good." He preached by his character and life as well as by his public and private ministrations and labors, and doubtless many were first impressed by his deep piety who subsequently were won to Christ by his earnest labors.

As a preacher he was sound, instructive and edifying. His sermons were eminently practical and persuasive. He sought to lead souls to Christ and to build them up in the faith of the Gospel; and his labors were sanctified to the salvation of many. As a pastor he was kind, attentive and sympathetic, and was greatly blessed in this department of his ministry.

For the last six years he was on the superannuated list, but even in this relation he was still useful to his fellow men, for his lovely character and upright life exerted a wholesome and blessed religious influence upon those with whom he associated. In his last sickness his patience and gentleness were beautiful to behold, and his unwavering faith and joyous hope were well calculated to impress every beholder with the Divine power of our holy religion. Kind friends and loved ones ministered to him until his happy spirit took its flight to the mansions of eternal rest. He was conscious to the last, and his end was in harmony with his life. He died in great peace and in sure and blessed hope of a glorious resurrection.

JAMES C. STOLL.

REV. MANNING BROWN

Was born in Columbia, S. C., Jannary the 26th, 1827, and died in that city July 29th, 1892. He was converted and joined the Church in 1857, and in the same year was licensed to preach and joined the South Carolina Conference.

Who can calculate the good he has done in his day and generation for the cause of Christ?

How sweet, rich and enduring his conscious reward!

For thirty years the Gospel was to Manning Brown the power of God—"the power of God unto salvation." The will of God as revealed in the Gospel was the rule of his life. He preached as if he saw the judgment throne and he and his hearers before the bar of God. He was no ordinary preacher. Always clear, logical, instructive, sometimes overwhelmingly powerful. Many souls during his ministry were led by him to Christ. Take him one time with another I never heard a more effective and successful preacher. On the text "the righteons hath hope in His death," he was masterful, and I have seen a large congregation moved to tears of joy as this master of assemblies pictured in choicest words and most thrilling sentences the blessed hope of the righteous.

He was a good man. He lived much upon his knees and held close communion with God. Christ to him was not an abstraction, but a Savior and elder brother. Prayer was coming to God. Religion was a Divine and precious experience. Oh! how the love of God did shine out in his countless deeds of kindness to the poor.

He was a true friend. He never talked behind a man's back. He was too noble a soul to do so ignoble a thing. He stood by his friends, and was slow to believe that they could do things dishonorable. As a friend, he was always there to help you when you needed him most, and ready with his heart and hand.

He was a brave man. The dauntless hero of two wars—the Mexican and the late war—he gained an enviable reputation as a patriot and a soldier. This truly brave spirit manifested itself continually in the readiness with which he always came to the relief of the oppressed, and the loving concern he always exhibited for the children of his pastorate.

He was a holy man. His conversation was in heaven. He walked with God. One who knew him well and loved him says: "In the closest intimacy and friendship of twenty years I do not now recall a speech or act of his inconsistent with his character and profession as a Christian and a Gospel minister.

We cherish his memory, and indulge the hope, through the infinite mercy of God, of rejoining him where our Christian friendship and love shall never again encounter the limitation of time or the frailties of mortality.

J. A. CLIFTON.

REV. JACOB L. SHUFORD.

Rev. Jacob L. Shuford has finished his work, and his glorified spirit dwells with the angels. He was born March 15th, 1824, in Cleveland County, N. C., and died at his residence near Summerton, Clarendon County, S. C., March 19th, 1892.

Our sainted brother made a profession of religion and united with the Church when a small boy. Thus shielded from the vices of youth, he developed into a pure and sturdy Christian, maintaining his profession in its brightness and purity to the end of his mortal life.

He was twice married. First to Miss Roxana Fullenwider, in 1849. This excellent woman died March 21st, 1869. His second marriage was to Mrs. M. A. Bell. Nine children honor this marriage, seven girls and two boys, who live to comfort and bless their stricken and bereaved mother.

Brother Shuford was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference December, 1844, at Columbia, S. C., Bishop Soule presiding. He was received into full connection and ordained Deacon, January, 1847, at the Conference held in Charleston, Bishop Capers presiding, and two years after ordained Elder by Bishop Capers. He traveled as an active itinerant forty-six years, thirty-one on missions and fifteen on circuits, receiving cheerfully his appointments and laboring earnestly, with the esteem and affection of his people. He died superannuated, having held this relation two years.

Few men, with a family of such dimensions, could have sustained themselves in the itinerant ranks, with so many removals, without more or less financial embarrassment; but be it said to his honor, "He abhorred debt and always lived within his income."

Brother Shuford was an earnest and successful preacher and diligent worker. Some gracious revivals were the result of his ministry. The most powerful revival ever known on Santee circuit was under his ministry in 1877. Numbers were convicted, and there was a large ingathering to the Church, and many living witnesses now speak of this extraordinary work of grace. Often in the pulpit he had the Divine anointing. On such occasions his sermons were in demonstration and power. His voice, unusually loud, was under control. His texts were well chosen, his scriptural quotations pointed, and his denunciation of sin terrific, cutting sinners to the heart in powerful conviction.

His disposition was sweet, and he knew well how to harmonize discordant elements. His last circuit was not in harmony, but alienation reigned among the membership. His tenderness and conservative course soon brought harmony and unity.

Before he closed his last year of active service he had a slight stroke of paralysis, which was not regarded as serious, but soon this was followed by another and another. He suffered much from confinement to the house, but was submissive and resigned, bearing this disability like a martyr.

Brother Shuford was large in person and large in heart. His frank and open countenance was a true index of a noble heart. In his family he was gentle and loving in all the small, sweet amenities of life, which was the occasion of a close and loving fellowship.

Bright, genial and affectionate, he was a delightful social companion. Enjoying life, he communicated that joy to all the circle of his associates. His beautiful life of cheerful faith in God was a rich comment upon and clear exponent of the Gospel which he proclaimed for so many years.

After his first attack he gradually declined, and literally fell asleep in death. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

HENRY M. MOOD.

REV. LANDY WOOD

Was born in Rutherford County, N. C., in 1825, and died at Clio, in Marlboro County, S. C., September 5, 1892. His parents were Baptists, and at the age of eleven he was converted and joined the Baptist Church.

His early opportunities for education were quite limited. When he quit school he could only read and write. Going from his home in North Carolina to Greenville, S. C., when but a youth, he entered a printing office and rapidly became a practical printer. Here he had opportunities for improving his mind. His naturally bright and active mind at once utilized them to his mental development. Every spare hour was turned to good account. Though debarred the advantages of school and college, he cultivated habits of study which afterward became the rule of his life. Few self-educated men attain more thorough scholarship than did he.

While in Greenville, in a great revival, he entered into a deeper experience of saving grace, and at the same time united with the Methodist, the doctrines of which accorded more fully with his matured convictions. He at once became an active and useful member. He preached a number of years as a local preacher, and in November, 1854, he was admitted into the South Carolina Conference. He was a member of the Conference for thirty-seven years; of these twenty-five he served on Circuits, nine on stations, one on a mission, and for two years was a superannuate.

He was twice married, first in 1845 to Miss Annie Snider, of Greenville, S. C., who died in 1881. He was again married in 1882 to Miss Reese, of Anderson County, who with three children still live.

Brother Wood was a preacher of no mean ability—he had a logical and inquiring mind. His preaching was always clear, Scriptural, and often delivered with great power. He delighted to preach on the witness of the Spirit and kindred topics. He was in the best sense a revivalist. His excellent tact in managing such meetings, his power in prayer, his deep experience of grace and the power with which he preached the Word could but result in many souls being won to Christ.

His cup of affliction was full, and many were his sore trials, but his faith in God's goodness never wavered, nor did he lose patience; in his own deep sorrows, through grace, he was the better prepared to minister to other tired and bleeding hearts the consolations of the Gospel.

As a pastor he was faithful and diligent, as a friend he was true and confiding. As he lived so he died; it was peaceful, triumphant. Just before he became unconscious his wife said to him, "How is it now?" His answer was: "I am crossing over the river, but all is well." And thus his redeemed spirit passed away to be forever with the Lord.

J. B. TRAYWICK.

REV. WILLIAM THOMAS.

The Reverend William Thomas, son of Thomas Thomas and Elizabeth Thomas, was born in Norfolk County, England, near Lien Regis, April 23rd, 1830, came to America in early life, was educated at Wilbraham Academy, Massachusetts, moved from Canada to South Carolina, taught school successfully, married Mrs. E. McKnight, of Summerton, in 1867, entered the South Carolina Conference in 1868, rendered faithful service on circuits and stations, was bereaved by the death of his wife January 1st, 1890, and himself departed this life at Florence, S. C., December 1st, 1890. Piously reared, he gave his heart to God and his hand to the Methodist Church in his youth. God called him to preach. He obeyed, and for years added to other work the labors of a useful local preacher. Finally, he entered the itinerant ministry and therein remained to the end. Sick and suffering, he started for the Annual Conference of 1890, and on November 24th reached the Florence station parsonage, where the Rev. H. B. Browne and family welcomed the dying man of God. Here he triumphed over death, and on the morning of December 1st entered into everlasting life. Christians who had witnessed many a death of triumph said: "We never saw a more glorious end." To his Presiding Elder he sent this message: "Tell him that since I found Jesus I have lived and preached the Gospel." It was a splendid claim, and it was the very truth!

Brother Thomas was a man of noble character, of cultured refinement, of tender cheerfulness, of self-respecting humility, of unspotted integrity, of dauntless courage, of unwavering faith—in a word, like that glorious company "of whom the world was not worthy." His lips never uttered an unclean word; his mind never harbored a tainted thought. He had right to beatific vision and matchless strength, "because his heart was pure." His courage was conspicuously proven. In the war between the States, he entered the Confederate army as a private. In this station he steadily bore himself as a brave soldier and Christian. In 1863, a desperate fight was in progress at Campbell's Station, East Tennessee. "In a most exposed situation, a gallant soldier received his death-wound, and soon after he called earnestly for prayer to be made in his behalf." William Thomas asked leave to go and pray with him. His request was at first refused, but was afterwards granted. Then, heedless of the hurtling missiles of death, he walked straight to the dying man, fixed the poor fellow in a comfortable position, held water to the parched lips, spoke a word or two of God's love and power to save, and then on bended knee, with head bared, he prayed for the departing spirit. Col. Jas. A. Hoyt says: "We cannot recall the words used in the petition, though they were distinctly heard at the time, amid the clash and fury of the battle." No wonder his gallant commander, Martin W. Gary, promoted him to the Chaplaincy of the Hampton Legion "for distinguished piety on the field of battle." And henceforth, let no one doubt that the spirit of the noble army of martyrs still lives. When the conquered banner was furled, William Thomas bore himself as bravely in the struggles of peace as in the shocks of war. He feared God and nothing else; he loved God and all mankind. To the world he gave a brother's kindness, to friends a warmer affection, to brethren a changeless love, to kindred yet more, and to the light of his life, his gentle wife, a pure and knightly devotion.

As a preacher, Brother Thomas exhibited his splendid characteristics as a man enlarged by the duties of his holy calling. His pulpit had no uncertain sound. He was orthodox. The new fancies had no place in his mind. He walked "in the old paths" and preached them. He preached the Word. Favored with a finished education, he could go nearer the source of truth than many, and he studied carefully the oracles of God. It follows that he was a thoughtful speaker. He uttered something worth hearing, worth remembering, worth fashioning into character. Because he was indifferent as to adorning his sermons, and sometimes in his zeal preached longer than usual, some were not as much attracted as might have been, yet even these united in saying he was a good preachar. And then he lived what he preached. The safe man to follow is the man who lives his preaching! Our brother was followed and led many to Christ. He wears no starless crown. In the light of eternity, who would not wish such a life, such a death? Let us change Balaam's words, and all devoutly pray "Let us live the life of the righteous and let our last end be like his."
